One player will be appointed by the croupier to act as dealer in each round.

When all cards have been dealt the dealer will tally up the score and reveal who had the winning hand.

The most notable difference between live baccarat and the game as it's played in standard blackjack online casinos is that the pace will most likely be a lot slower.

Live baccarat & physical casino games

Playing against a live dealer was only previously possible in a physical casino

, and was one way in which traditional bricks & mortar casinos still had the edge over their online rivals.

We recommend any of the sites on this page if you're looking for somewhere safe, secure and fun to try the game out for yourself.
