May 31, 2021: The 2021 legislative session came to a close with no resolution to legalize sports betting in Texas.

However, the country does not have a full legislative framework, as the National Gambling Amendment Act of 2008 intended to properly regulate the vertical never came into force.

Now, though, the Democratic Alliance is set to introduce a bill with many of the same goals as that 2008 act in the National Assembly of Parliament.

“As such, interactive/online gambling is currently not regulated in South Africa,” the Democratic Alliance noted.

“By not regulating this gambling activity, the erosion of the rule of law and criminal activity is being encouraged, while the public is not effectively protected.

The bill will also “provide for procedures relating to objections from issuing of licences”.

It also promises to “provide for the protection of minors and vulnerable persons”.

After the bill is introduced, stakeholders may submit their views on it to the Speaker of the National Assembly.
