If you pay this tax when shopping abroad, you can often get your money back after you've returned home, since travelers are typically entitled to a refund for the VAT portion of prices for goods.

At the time of purchase, the retailer will give you a VAT refund form, which must be signed by both the retailer and you.

The VAT refund receipt needs to be stamped in Spain.

The amount that the item is taxed is dependant on the material and the country of origin not the country it was purchased from but the country it was manufactured in. Source: chanel.
