90 Minutes Only Bets

I have something to confess: I am a handbag collector.

I tend to wait for all the Cyber Monday handbag deals to come about each Novemb er, though, as the designer handbags I like aren't exactly easy on the purse strings.

And as if my disposable income wasn't already a sight for sore eyes, along came the cost of living crisis we're all currently experiencing.

With that, it's crucial to really weigh up the importance of what you're e looking to buy in the Black Friday sales.

Do you need it? Equally, is it going to last you longer than a year? If yes, pr oceed, if no, save your money.

The good news about buying bags? They tend to hold their worth if you buy well, making them a wiser investment than other purchases.

This year, fellow handbag-loving friends, you'll be pleased to know that yo ur next piece of arm candy may just well be at a fraction of the price.
