The opponent is always the house, i.e. Before gameplay begins, every player makes a bet, also referred to as an ante. 2s through 10s and worth their pip value.

Face cards are worth 10. If the player beats the dealer or if the dealer busts and they don't, then they receive 2:1 on their bet.

If a player's hand equals 21, they get a blackjack and receive 3:2 on their bet.

If a player believes that the dealer will get a blackjack, they can buy insurance by giving the dealer an equal amount of their ante.

They consist of Clubs, Spades, Hearts and Diamonds.

BCCS UPDATE - NOVEMBER 2022

2022 is now drawing to a close, and what a whirlwind it's been! This year saw the long-awaited return of the BCCS Convention, breaking from its usual date in early October to be held on Sat 14th May at the Holiday Inn M6 J7 in Birmingham.

I'd hoped that the next Convention will take place as usual in early October, but there are as yet no firm plans, with location, venue and speakers still to be determined.

Our private Facebook Group, which has proved especially popular with geographically-distant members, has gone from strength to strength, and now has 83 members.

It's a dynamic community for sharing photos, exchanging information, discussing and asking questions about vintage compacts.

Compact themes are also announced at the beginning of every month as an activity for the Group.

The Winter 2022 issue, with a 'Foreign' compact theme, will arrive before Christmas, getting us through the coldest, darkest days until Spring is with us once again!

In keeping with these challenging times, the BCCS hasn't raised membership p
