On this page, we'll take a closer look at the reasons why wagering on sports is unlikely to be legalized in South Carolina as well as some of the faint glimmers of hope that may one day become a regulated sports gambling industry in the state.

South Carolina Legal Sports Betting at a Glance

As one of the most historically anti-gambling states in the nation, South Carolina does not offer any form of sports betting online or offline.

Historically South Carolina has been anti-gambling on all fronts.

As we've seen in other states like neighboring Georgia, states with the most entrenched beliefs and values tend to be the most resistant to change.

Unfortunately, since betting on sports is not regulated in the state there are no legal online sportsbooks for South Carolinians to use.

Will Online Sports Betting Ever Be Legal in South Carolina?

The big takeaway from all of this is that legal sports betting looks unlikely in
