As far as online poker and casino sites go, there's not much to report on that front.

The punishment for this one is much stiffer at up to 10 years imprisonment and up to $20,000 in fines.

Some interpretations of existing law may expose individual gamblers to prosecution for merely participating as players, but the state has never charged someone for placing wagers online.

Maine looks increasingly likely to legalize online betting at some point, so the best thing to do now is hang tight until lawmakers decide the best way forward.
