Louisianans are able to wager on simulcast races through their computers and mobile devices at their leisure.

TVG, in addition to being a comprehensive horse betting site, is a full-service broadcast network dedicated exclusively to horse racing.

As we mentioned, however, there are several sweepstakes sites that do conform with Louisiana law.

The event, known as the Creole Race, takes place in April and features a $1,000 purse.

Over the course of the next 80 years or so, all legal options for wagering are banned in Louisiana EXCEPT for pari-mutuel wagering on horse races.

The result is a massive upswing in the fortunes of the lottery provider, which manifests with 100%+ dividends to shareholders and offers to pay less on their state license.
